

GAMING MACHINE ACT 2004, s38B

Form made pursuant to s 53D of Gambling and Racing Control Act 1999

APPLICATION FOR AN IN-PRINCIPLE APPROVAL FOR AN AUTHORISATION CERTIFICATE

If insufficient space is available for responses please attach additional information.

Information

An application for An In-principle Approval for an Authorisation Certificate is to allow a person to obtain in-principle approval to have a maximum number of authorisations for gaming machines under an authorisation certificate at an address at unleased land before—

- (a) the person acquires an interest in the land or premises at the address; or
- (b) plans are prepared for the premises proposed to be licensed at the address; or
- (c) for a club—the voting members of the club vote in a ballot conducted under the regulation for the club having gaming machines at the address.

A person may apply for an In-principle Approval for an Authorisation Certificate if the person holds a class C licence or has applied for a class C licence and the land at the address for which the in-principle authorisation certificate is sought is suitable land (as defined under section 38B of the Act).
